

MRS. MACSWINEY'S WELCOME GROWS

Mrs. George Childs and Wife of Mayor of Atlanta Added to Reception Committee.

Arrangements for the public reception for Mrs. Terence MacSwiney, widow of the late Lord Mayor of Cork, who is to arrive here on board the Celtic tomorrow morning, are rapidly complete. Scores of women have accepted invitations to serve on the official committee, which is headed by Miss Jeannette Rankin, and yesterday Mrs. George Childs, president of the New York Women's Democratic State Committee, volunteered to serve and was accepted. Mrs. Joseph P. Grace, wife of the Mayor of Atlanta, is on the committee but will not be able to be present.

"Please say to Mrs. MacSwiney," Mrs. Grace telegraphed, "that she has the sympathy and prayers of our whole women who inherit traditions of sorrow and recollections of martyrs who cruelly died at the hands of the same tyrant in our midst as the one who put her husband to death for the same cause."

The committee last night made public a list of acceptances which includes the names of Mrs. Harold Harrison Villard, Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, Mrs. Frederic C. Howe, Mrs. Henry Villard, Mrs. J. A.
